Allworx Offers New Feature-Rich Allworx 6x12 Phone System for Small Businesses

Product featured at ITEXPO, Booth #429, February 1-3 in Miami Beach, Florida.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark.— Allworx, a subsidiary of Windstream Corp. (Nasdaq: WIN), today announced its new Allworx 6x12 Phone System, offering all-in-one communications for small businesses.

The Allworx 6x12 Phone System now allows small offices, with up to 12 employees, to utilize the cutting-edge features that larger companies have been using for years, including: VoIP (SIP) and traditional phone line support, key systems features, unified messaging, unlimited call routes, presence management, Call Assistant™ with TAPI, Conference Center™, mobile link, and call queuing. The new system allows users to reach their customers faster and more efficiently through the phone or a computer.

"The Allworx 6x12 system delivers powerful all-in-one communications with feature-rich capabilities to our small business customers," said Chris Hasenauer, vice president and general manager of Allworx. "We are now able to specifically offer offices with up to 12 employees a reliable, low-cost true key system operation to help them make a strong first impression on their customers."

Additional opportunities at ITExpo East:

- Allworx will be exhibiting at booth #429 at IT Expo East in Miami, Feb 1-3
